

Mr. Bhaskara G. M.Com,
Assistant Professor

Mr. Bhaskara G. is an Assistant Professor specializing in Commerce education at our institution. Having joined in July 2022, he holds an M.Com. from GITAM University, bringing a fresh perspective and academic rigor to his role. Mr. Bhaskara is committed to creating a supportive and enriching learning environment where students can develop a comprehensive understanding of commerce principles and practices.

With a focus on integrating theoretical knowledge with practical applications, Mr. Bhaskara prepares students to excel in the dynamic field of commerce. His dedication to academic excellence and innovative teaching methodologies reflects his passion for empowering students with essential skills and insights. Beyond teaching, he actively contributes to curriculum development initiatives, ensuring alignment with industry standards and emerging trends.

Mr. Bhaskara's enthusiasm for commerce education and his commitment to student success make him a valuable addition to our faculty. His proactive approach to teaching and scholarly engagement positions him as a dedicated educator and mentor, inspiring future commerce professionals to achieve their academic and professional goals.